A highly experienced general surgeon and specialist in surgery of the colon, rectum and anus, Peter M. Kaye, MD, FACS, FASCRS, came to Good Samaritan Regional Medical Center in 2010 from Valley Hospital and Chilton Memorial Hospital in New Jersey. He is now an active and welcome member of Bon Secours Medical Group.

Dr. Kaye's impressive resume includes receiving his medical degree from FUHS/Chicago Medical School in Illinois and finishing his surgical residency at St. Luke's-Roosevelt Hospital Center in New York City. He completed his fellowship in colon and rectal surgery in Ohio at the Grant Medical Center/Ohio State University program. Dr. Kaye is a diplomate of the American Board of Surgery as well as the American Board of Colon and Rectal Surgery, and a fellow of both the American Society of Colon and Rectal Surgeons and the American College of Surgeons.

Dr. Kaye specializes in laparoscopic colon resection and all facets of minimally invasive surgery. He is also experienced in colonoscopy, endorectal ultrasonography and painless treatment of hemorrhoidal disease.

Dynamic, forward thinking and experienced, Dr. Kaye brings a high level of surgical expertise to our fine community of physicians.
